

ELIZABETH DULBERGER

Elizabeth Dulberger is one of North America's most sought after Leadership Advisor, Executive Coach, Professional Industry Speaker and Author of Smoke & Mirrors: Strategic Self-Awareness for Leaders & Future Leaders.

With her extensive years of experience and knowledge in the industry, she has established herself as the go-to authority to educate, train and motivate current and future leaders through her seminars, workshops, and industry events. Her unique, intuitive and no-nonsense approach to business and personal success has captured and inspired audiences across North America.

Leveraging her skill of working with CEOs, entrepreneurs, management teams and their staff, Elizabeth has cultivated a unique coaching approach as well as entertaining seminars that engage, challenge and reboot employee and leadership thinking and approach. Elizabeth works closely with senior leaders and their teams who are challenged to lead effectively, to identify, challenge and develop future leaders and improve the bottom line. Elizabeth is passionate about advancing individuals at all levels of management as well as helping to move organizations to the next level of success.

In 2013, she formed the Dulberger Group which was created to help organizations successfully empower, motivate and inspire employees and leaders to gain more influence and deliver exceptional results. Over the years, Elizabeth has acquired an educational background in political science, workplace conflict resolution, mediation, facilitation and negotiation as well as transformational leadership and business management.

Elizabeth's expertise and advice have appeared in various media publications including CBS Radio, Business Daily, Carol Roth, The Conversations Magazine, and many more.

She has also become an in-demand coach for individuals at some of the world's top companies including CIBC Wood Gundy, Brookside Companies, CAPREIT and York Heritage Properties as well as U.S. political figures and athletes.

